

BELIEF IN FILM

REFLECTION

- What are your initial thoughts about this film? How did it make you feel?
- How does this film connect to your own experiences?
- Which parts did you find most interesting and / or inspiring?
- Did you see or hear anything that surprised you?
- Were there any parts in the film that you found more problematic? Why?
- Did you see or hear anything that has made you think differently?
- In what way is the film helpful in opening up conversations?
- What will you take away from seeing this film?